

Directions To Turkey Hollow

From Woodstock (about 6-7 miles depending what side of Woodstock you are starting out)-

(Basically – once out of Woodstock on Rt. 12 - you go right, then left, then right.)

Here are the details:

From Rt. 4 in Woodstock follow signs to Rt. 12 north. Follow Rt. 12 north about one mile until the road splits, a Y.

At the intersection take the road to the right. Follow signs to Pomfret and Suicide Six Ski Area.

About another two (2+) miles the road splits again, a Y at the Teago Store. This time turn left. Follow signs to Suicide Six.

You should pass the ski area on your left. From there it is about four miles to Turkey Hollow.

The road is asphalt for another three miles then it turns to dirt. (Ignore any dirt roads turning to the right before then, especially Wild Apple road.) Stay on the road, now dirt, for about 2/3rds mile, pass a yellowish house on the right.

There will be another Y intersection. This time you turn right (the sign saying 'Lime Pond Road' is in the grass in the center of the intersection). The 'lower house' is the second house on the right with a garage that opens to the road. On the other side of the road is an old barn and tape fence. Most obvious is the three-color mailbox, #165.

The 'main house' is the next house up the road on the left. Park in the lower field please.
